ART OF LIVING

'The Art of Living Lifestyle Show'

Glasgow Royal Concert Hall

Wednesday 23rd February 2011

Doors open at 10am

Doors close at 4pm

Glasgow Social Care Providers Forum are organising a major Lifestyle Show- an ideal platform to showcase your innovative and responsive ideas, networks, products, services and supports direct to adults with learning and/or physical disabilities and children and young people with disabilities!

An invaluable opportunity to meet current and prospective customers, network, explore what support and services (paid and unpaid) are on offer, respond to peoples' real-life experiences and expectations matched against the fast changing world of social care.

Exhibitors can expect approx 2000 visitors on the day from a wide and diverse range of people looking for a varied level of supports, service, choice and information.

Visitors will have free entry and will be people from all walks of life, individuals (self funders, personal budget holders, those using current supports and services), family members and carers, key influencers from local authorities, government agencies and providers from health and social care organisations.

There will be loads for people to see and do at the Art of Living Lifestyle Show, we will be providing more details as the show approaches.
